DINNER: 4 TO 6 P. M.

The evening meal will be served by the ladies of the Guild in the dining room of the Community Church. Mrs. Walter Whissen will be in charge. It is urged that those who can do so arrange to be served as early as possible. The dining room will be open at four o'clock and it is hoped that all will be provided for and ready to view the crowning of the Queen in front of the church at six o'clock so the parade may start promptly at six-thirty.

CROWNING OF THE QUEEN

Committee in Charge: Mrs. J. Elmer Jones, Mrs. Hugh Means,
Mrs. O. C. Ingalls

GRAND PARADE: 6:30 P. M.

Committee in Charge: John Ryder, Ray Evans, Dwight Smith,
Jack Radebaugh

Parade forms on Cambridge Blvd. facing south. Moves east on First Avenue to Grandview Avenue. Countermarches to Aladdin Country Club grounds.

Prizes will then be awarded for best street group, most attractive float or machine, most novel and original individuals: one prize for women's or girls' outfit and one prize for the same for man or boy.

MOVING PICTURES

A high class movie, "Evangeline," will be given in the church at 8:30 P. M. under the auspices of the Community Picture Management, whose committee is Dwight Smith and D. S. Field.

DANCING

Committee in Charge: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wuichet, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Shearer,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laylin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Webster,
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Constable

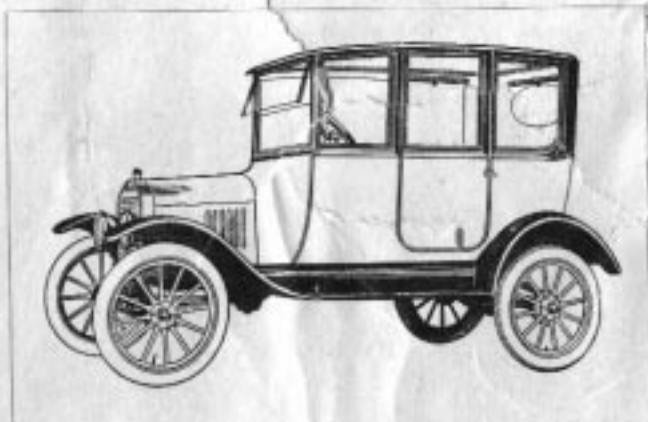

This recreation will be offered on Lincoln Road just north of First Avenue. Music will be furnished by the Barracks Band. Aesthetic Dancing by the children will be given between the usual numbers. A fish pond and fortune teller will afford diversion meanwhile.

FINANCES

The proceeds of the day are to be devoted to our Community Americanization program.
